

809 Central Ave., which is correct

Aug. 11, 1942.

Mr. Wilbur Hayes,
8409 Central Ave.,
Cleveland, Ohio.

Dear Mr. Hayes:

I have just received the information over the telephone what ball players are being sent to the East-West game from the Eagles, they are pitcher Leon Day, Shortstop and Manager Willie Wells and first baseman Leonard Pearson.

If you have not received pictures and stories on these men yet, you will get them any minute now. GPF Publicity man took a chance on guessing who the League would send and sent you stuff on these three, plus another man, Leniel Hooker, who will not be with the team.

I received the placard you sent yesterday, it is really very nice, whoever got it up knew his job. I hope the publicity is coming along well, as that is the main thing needed to make the game a success. If you want my man to send any news directly to the Papers in Cleveland, either white or colored, send me the names of the Papers with the Sports Editors. I suppose I will see you in Chicago this week-end.

Very truly yours,

EM:CCJ

P. 29 On your white stationery you have your address as #8409 Central Ave., and on the yellow #4899 Central Ave., which is correct?